Beyond the symbolic evocation of infinity, Ellipses is about consciousness, meditation and the possibility of time flowing differently. It's an invitation to put our vision of the world into perspective, without trying to play down the straitjacket in which living things evolve and seem to acclimatize.

A step back, or an approach, a journey of thought beyond the visible and immaterial circles in which we are supposed to gather, with no real possibility of evolving.

Nicolas Tourte was born in Charleville-Mézières, lives in Lille and works all over the world.
